Festivities begin this year with a luncheon at 12 noon. A delicious meal of lasagna, salad and bread will be served. The cost is $12 per person and the deadline for reservations is Friday, July 17. Reservations can be made by texting Barb Whitlock 609-472-4687. Checks should be made payable to SSCM Women’s Auxiliary and mailed to Barb at PO Box 527, South Seaville, NJ 08246.

Following the luncheon, you may enjoy our Cottage tours, Little Acorn Shoppe, History Wagon Ride, Bake Sale, Basket Raffle, and Prayer Tent. Take a few minutes to cool off with lemonade at the Bell Tower or visit the Ice Cream Parlor.

Elaine Santo

A program will be presented at 3:30 pm in our open-air Tabernacle. Join us for a time of worship and an exciting testimony given by Elaine Santo. She is a former beauty queen who currently serves as NJ Aglow Area President and New Jersey Aglow State Representative on the NE Regional Aglow Dev. Team.

Come and hear about her transformation from beauty queen to God’s handmaiden. Elaine is now dedicated to intercessory prayer and is a student of His Word, especially Proverbs 31 on the virtuous woman of God. She has also developed an etiquette course for young girls, Girls Empowered for the Master’s Service (G.E.M.S.).

The featured mission this year is Malachi Network which provides support and resources for missionaries and church leaders. Vice President Jeff Henderson will be speaking at our camp meeting services.

Sanctification

"As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. ¹⁹And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth."
(John 17:18-19) NKJV

In 1875, a large bell was first used to announce services daily. Throughout the years, the bell continued to be rung to summon all people to gather in unity. The bell echoes a call that stirs hearts to worship, prayer, and find the truth in God’s word.

As the bell is rung, we invite you to come into the Tabernacle to experience a deeper personal relationship with God and to be drawn from worldly distractions to eternal purpose.

We invite you to our 163rd Camp Meeting. Come and dive deeper into sanctification and the processes that pertain to your walk with the Lord.

With adoration to our Lord,
Paul S. Hammond, President SSCMA
